SUMMER SCHOOL JESUIT UNIVERSITY
IGNATIANUM IN KRAKOW

ABOUT IGNATIANUM

Situated in the heart of Krakow, Ignatianum – as a Jesuit university – has become a part of more than 450 years of educational tradition of the Society of Jesus. Currently, Jesuits run their schools and universities in 27 countries on almost all continents, thus being one of the largest international educational networks.

The roots of Jesuit University Ignatianum go back to the 1930s. Educating lay students began in the last decades of the 20th century. At present, there are more than 3000 students and 11 fields of study within the scope of humanities and social sciences.

ABOUT SUMMER SCHOOL

Offered by Jesuit University Ignatianum in Krakow, the cultural project Summer School organised from 1st July to 14th July 2018 is directed first of all towards youth (of age) and students. Classes devoted to the Polish culture, Polish language workshops and sightseeing tours of Krakow and its surroundings (all in English) will allow the participants to get to know the culture of ancient and contemporary Poland (cf. Programme for Ignatianum Summer School). Krakow – the seat of Polish kings and the cultural capital of Poland, the city full of an antique charm, the bishop's capital of St John Paul II – is an ideal destination to organise this kind of enterprise.
